Activities

Visit São João da Pesqueira

1. Town Hall

Palatial building where Marquis of Soveral lived. At its center the stone of arms and the balcony with noble aspects stand out. The atrium has beautiful tile panels regarding Douro's ethnography.

2. Wine Museum

This museum has a tasting room, a wine store, a wine bar and other exhibition and cultural spaces.

3. St. John Church

Devoted to St. John, this church was built in the 14th century. The ceiling with panels dating from the 17th century, the baroque altarpiece and funeral gravestones visible in the floor stand out in its interior.

4. Direita Street

Walking down Direita Street (Old Royal Street), you can admire the noble houses from the 17th century. In the various buildings and architectural stairs, different materials are used such as granite, herringbone slate or schist.

5. República Square

Built under a castle from the Christian reconquest of which only the central arch still stands. The arch and central tower are medieval, with the chapel and Távora's House on the right. The old Town Hall, arcade and the clock tower dating from the 18th century.

6. Gatos Street

Jewish street that represents the medieval legacy. The relevance of the inhabitants led the royal power to grant contract forms to artisans who followed the law of Moses. São João da Pesqueira may have been born here.

7. Eduardo Tavares Museum

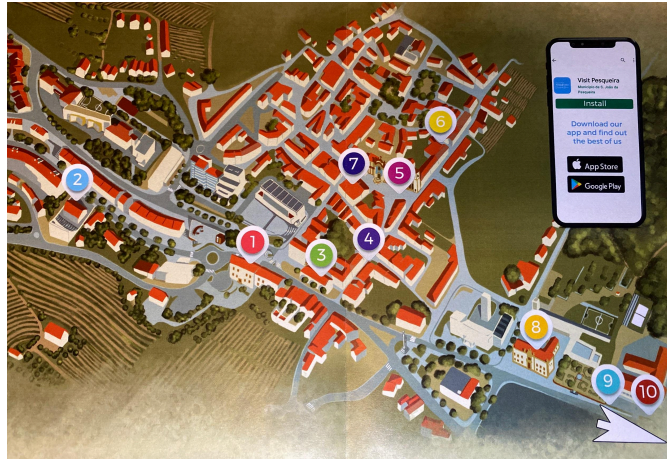

Built by D. Maria I in 1794, it has a royal stone of arms on its baroque facade. It honors the artist of the village, Eduardo Tavares, and has the archeological assets of the county with artifacts dating from around 6000 years ago.

8. Cabo Palace

One of the most beautiful Joanine palaces with protection in the region. Outlined by Nicolau Nasoni, has 365 doors and windows all different in design, and a garden on the side.

9. St. Francis Convent

It was donated to the third order of St. Francis penance and was famous in the 18th century for its apothecary. Marquês de Pombal studied here, who became the prime minister of Portugal.
